*"Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion?"
Luke 14:28*

Being a disciple is not for the faint of heart or half-committed. Jesus is clear about requiring detachment — from people and things. We have heard this before in the Gospel. The Gospel makes clear what the demands are. It's up to us to search our own hearts honestly and trust that we will not be left to walk the path alone.

Lord Jesus, you challenged the disciples to renounce their possessions: Lord, have mercy.

Christ Jesus, you called them to take up their crosses and follow you: Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you will be with us as we do the same: Lord, have mercy.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Wis 9:13-18b God is inscrutable.

Psalm 9 In every age, you have been our refuge.

September 8 – THE BIRTH OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

The Church has celebrated Mary's birth since at least the sixth century. A September 8th birth was chosen because of the date feast of the Immaculate Conception on December 8 (nine months earlier). Scripture does not give an account of Mary's birth. However, the apocryphal Protoevangelium of James fills in the gap. This work has no historical value, but it does reflect the development of Christian piety. According to this account, Anna and Joachim are infertile but pray for a child. They receive the promise of a child that will advance God's plan of salvation for the world. Such a story (like many biblical counterparts) stresses the special presence of God in Mary's life from the beginning. St. Augustine connects Mary's birth with Jesus' saving work. He tells the earth to rejoice and shine forth in the light of her birth. "She is the flower of the field from whom bloomed the precious lily of the valley. Through her birth the nature inherited from our first parents is changed." The opening prayer at Mass speaks of the birth of Mary's Son as the dawn of our salvation and asks for an increase of peace.
