

Opening Prayer

O God, who founded all the commands of your sacred Law upon love of you and of our neighbor, grant that, by keeping your precepts, we may merit to attain eternal life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Reflecting on Living the Gospel

Jesus was a master teacher. His parables inspired and they were remembered in part because they were simple stories that conveyed multiple layers of meaning. Each story seems to have a variety of possible entry points, as does today's gospel. Is the landowner truly just when he gives all the workers the same wage? What would unionized workers say about this practice? Why does the landowner distribute wages in the manner he does, with those who worked the longest receiving their pay last? Is he trying to incite a riot, or maybe inspire jealousy and envy? All of these questions and more may be conjured up by a quick reading of the parable.

Not only was Jesus a master teacher, but we recall that he taught two thousand years ago! One challenge is that some of his stories are set deeply in the milieu of his context. The parable is not in fact making statements about modern labor law or the role of unions or day laborers. Instead, landowners in Jesus' time had incredible power over workers and over their property. Perhaps because there were no labor unions, guest worker programs, or labor laws to protect workers, the landowner was able to act with impunity. This kind of power makes for an apt image of a powerful and unaccountable God!

So Jesus uses the character of the landowner in the parable to say that God gives each his or her due at the very least, and he is generous. It is not up to us to tell God how and in what way he is to be generous with his resources. God gives to each what he will, though not less than what he promised.

In the early church this parable was often interpreted in terms of Jews and Gentiles, with Jews being the early workers and Gentiles being those who came late. God gives each a share of his kingdom. All will likely be surprised by the generosity of God and by who appears at the heavenly banquet.

Closing Prayer

Lord Jesus, you are the master teacher, informing us of the meaning of discipleship and what that entails. Give us your spirit of perseverance so that we might live worthy of our call. Your Father, our God, is generous and gives what he will. We are grateful for all these gifts, in your holy name. Amen.

Gospel

Matthew 20:1-16a

Jesus told his disciples this parable:

“The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard.

After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard.

Going out about nine o'clock,

the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, ‘You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.’

So they went off.

And he went out again around noon,

and around three o'clock, and did likewise.

Going out about five o'clock,

the landowner found others standing around, and said to them,

‘Why do you stand here idle all day?’

They answered, ‘Because no one has hired us.’

He said to them, ‘You too go into my vineyard.’

When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman,

‘Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.’

When those who had started about five o'clock came, each received the usual daily wage.

So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more,

but each of them also got the usual wage.

And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying,

‘These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat.’ He said to one of them in reply, ‘My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?’ Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

For Reflection:

• How do you feel about God's justice as portrayed in the parable of the laborers in the vineyard?

Suggestions for group and individual use:

- 1. Pray aloud the "Opening Prayer" (in The Roman Missal called the "collect").
2. One person read aloud the gospel.
3. Each read prayerfully "Reflecting on Living the Gospel" and spend some time in personal prayer.
4. Share together responses to "For Reflection."
5. Pray the "Closing Prayers."

INTRODUCTION

Today's readings remind us that with God, we are wise to expect the unexpected. Life is full of surprises and, sometimes, reversals: We may suffer injustice; things may seem unfair or out of balance; bad things happen when we least expect them. But whatever happens to us, we can be confident that God is with us. Even more, a loving, generous God is actually pursuing us. God's love and compassion are always here...though sometimes just outside our line of vision. And sometimes that love and compassion may be expressed in ways beyond our comprehension.

Rest In The Heart of Jesus

And Receive His Peace

Dear Friends of Holy Cross Church,

The Holy Cross Church annual Tricky Tray fundraiser is our largest event of the year to financially support our parish.

This important event scheduled for October 23, 2020 has been canceled due to the Covid19 pandemic's restrictions on the number of people allowed to be seated indoors.

We know that the Tricky Tray is a fun filled event, anticipating the chance to win prizes and to socialize with family and friends. Unfortunately it can't happen this year.

The parish committee after discussions on this matter made a decision to ask parishioners for monetary donations in lieu of trays or other contributions you normally donated in the past.

Your generosity is truly appreciated in this unprecedented pandemic time affecting our parish financially.

Please pick up envelopes from the parish hall. Some letters will be sent by mail. The mailing includes a self-addressed Tricky Tray Appeal envelope for your convenience.

Please return your envelope with the donation in the Sunday collection basket or by mail by the end of November 15, 2020. For any donations sent by Venmo please specify – Tricky Tray contribution.

P.S. Please find the winning results of 50/50 drawing on the reverse

With appreciation and prayers,

Fr. Joseph Cyman

The Holy Cross Church In Woodland Park celebrated today parish Luncheon /Picnic with the dedication of the plaque in the memory of Hughie Vickerilla. The plaque says “In memory of Hughie’s Coffee Hour”. Hughie was sharing his culinary talents he learned from his father Hubert in preparing beefsteaks, fish and chips dinners and special menu for parish different celebrations. He was serving the coffee hour for many years and was bringing pastry to our parishioners. He left his legacy of service and dedication to Holy Cross Church. At today’s celebration was present Hughie’s wife, Beverly and his family members and several parishioners.

Sacrament of Baptism administered to Raymond Rey Bradbury, son of Steven and Pilar (nee Rey) Bradbury on Saturday, Sept. 19, 2020. We congratulate parents, godparents, Robert and Mary family members and friends.

ANNUAL BLESSING

OF PETS - will take place on Sunday, October 4, 2020 at the beginning of the 11:00 o'clock Mass. The Mass will take place in the parish hall. Well behaved dogs, cats, fish, birds and all God’s creatures are invited with their owners. The blessing will be given in commemoration of Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi (Oct. 4). As we know, animals trusted St. Francis and he treated them with courtesy. Near the end of his life St. Francis composed a song of praise and thanks to God for all his creations, called “Canticle to Brother Sun” - also known as the “Canticle of the Creatures.” From this song we know that St. Francis did not perceive himself isolated from other creatures. He simply assumed that all creatures - not only humans - form one family of creation. So we are encouraged to bless and praise God with cats, dogs, birds and all God’s creatures.

NEW PARISHIONERS – If you are new to our parish, please submit your name and phone number to Father Joseph. Father will contact you regarding parish membership and answer the questions you may have regarding our church. WELCOME
