The Deacon William Gaydos

SUNDAY MASSES 9 am and 11 am

WEEKDAY MASSES – 8:30 am (check bulletin)

"Rise, and do not be afraid." Matthew 17:7

INTRODUCTION

As we begin the second week of Lent, we encounter Abram moving to a new place, the disciples struggling to understand Jesus, and the early Christians trying to figure out how to live the Gospel. If our own understanding about who Jesus is remains a struggle with ongoing questions, let us not be discouraged. If our hearts are open, we can trust that there will be people and experiences to help us along the way.

Scripture readings:

Genesis 12:1-4a God's blessing and promise to Abram

Ps 33 Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you

2 Tim 1:8b-10 God gives us strength to live the Gospel

Mt 17:1-9 Jesus is transfigured on the mountain

PRAYER FOR SYRIA AND TURKEY

God,

In the face of unspeakable tragedy, the suffering of those in our community, and the destruction and loss of life in Syria and Turkey, we pray what the Psalmist wrote in Psalm 10:

Lord, you know the hopes of the helpless. Surely, you will hear their cries and comfort them. You will bring justice to the orphans and the oppressed.

Comfort the people whose family members and friends have died as a result of these earthquakes. Draw close to them.

Equip believers in Syria and Turkey to show the love of Jesus to their neighbors by helping in tangible ways and sharing the hope of the Gospel.

Inspire generosity in the hearts of people in the United States and across the world, prompting individuals to give the resources and money needed to help communities rebuild.

Empower the Church in America to show radical love for our immediate neighbors who are grieving the loss of life, beauty, and peace in Syria and Turkey.

Let us not turn away, but help us be your hands and feet to love those who are suffering and bear witness to your presence with them. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.
