HOLY MASSES AT 9 AM AND 11 AM
WEEKDAY MASSES – 7:30 am (check bulletin)

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." - Matthew 11:28

INTRODUCTION

Today's hopeful readings are full of promise. These words speak to people coming out of exile, to Jesus' followers who are burdened, to those struggling to live as early Christians. Living in a time when we are burdened by information, negative or misleading, or disinformation as well as serious divisions and threats, we, too, need encouragement. We seek honorable leaders and words we can trust. Do we allow God's word to be a true source of good news for us? What would happen if we allowed ourselves to accept Jesus' invitation to come to him for rest?

SCRIPTURE READINGS:

Zech 9:9-10 God's people are given the promise of a hopeful future

Ps 145 I will praise your name for ever, my King and my God

Rom 8:9, 11-13 The life-giving Spirit dwells in us

Mt 11:25-30 "Come to me ... for my yoke is easy, and my burden is light

Prayer for 250th Anniversary of USA:
Heavenly Father, we stand before You today with grateful hearts as we celebrate the 250th anniversary of our nation's founding. We thank You for the priceless blessings of liberty, the protection You have shown us through the generations, and the freedom we enjoy to worship You openly.

Lord, we look back at our history with humility, recognizing both our triumphs and our flaws. As we step into the future, we ask for Your mercy and grace to fall afresh on America. Heal our divisions, mend our communities, and turn our hearts back toward Your truth.

Grant divine wisdom, integrity, and compassion to our leaders. Protect our military, first responders, and all who serve the common good. Inspire every citizen to act with kindness, to seek justice, and to uphold the dignity of every life.

May the United States continue to be a beacon of hope and freedom for generations to come. We rededicate this land to You, trusting that You are our ultimate refuge and strength. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
